Erlyn	(305)323-0410	near SW 16th Ave just off of US1	Kelly: Has two dogs of her own. The dogs are crated at night but she walks them and lets them run around in the yard during the day. She also always makes herself available during the holidays. Lea: She charges $15/day (for the first 2 weeks - then it's $30/day after that) and only cages them while she's gone. Meeting RSMAS!	Kelly Gibson, Lea Medeiros
Vanessa	(305)753-1215		Only keeps a few dogs at a time, along with her own. She is great at playing with the dogs and will update you as often as you ask. They get a lot of time outside and are cageless indoors. She charges $15 a night to keep your dog. She's not a certified dog sitter, but my dog is always extremely happy when I come to get her (not just because she's happy to see me), but she has fun with the sitter's pet and playing in their yard, so sometimes she wants to continue playing instead of leaving right away.	Dominique Lazzarre

Waggle Brothers			A little pricey but the dogs get exercise and constant attention.	Harry DeFerrari
The Pet Motel		Key Largo	Prices are between $20-$30/night (depending on your dog's size) and the dogs are allowed to roam and play the entire day. I always take my dog there because it is so inexpensive and she comes back happy and tired.	Molly Stevens
Petsmart Pet Hotel		Coral Gables	The cages are large and the dogs are taken out for playdays everyday (not sure how many times per day) but is worth checking it out.	Charlene Grall
Kool and Cute Groomers	(305)379-5677	Brickell	I board my dog here and he is areally feisty dog, but the owner there is wonderful. She really has a way with animals and always calms	Tara Dolan
