

AMBIENT Content Questions

Lead Scenario

1. What is one of the potential health effects of lead poisoning in children?
 - a. Loss of IQ
 - b. Shortness of breath
 - c. Liver damage
 - d. Heart disease

2. What are some of the risk factors for lead poisoning in children?
 - a. Poverty, race, ethnicity
 - b. Age, poverty, home location
 - c. Home location, ethnicity, socioeconomic status
 - d. Age, race, poverty

3. Why do children eat lead paint?
 - a. It has a sweet taste
 - b. They are undernourished
 - c. Parents feed it to them
 - d. They have a neurological condition

4. When a child has lead poisoning, what is done for them?
 - a. They undergo radiation therapy
 - b. They go through physical therapy
 - c. They are in the hospital for up to two weeks
 - d. Very little because lead poisoning is difficult to treat

5. Children are most commonly affected by lead poisoning from:
 - a. Air
 - b. Water
 - c. Makeup
 - d. Paint