

AMBIENT Content Questions

Water Microbes and Human Health Exercise

1. Which of the following is not a microbe that commonly affects human health?
  - a. Cryptosporidium
  - b. Schistosoma
  - c. Quaricomium
  - d. E. Coli

2. What disease is caused by e. coli?
  - a. Sinusitis
  - b. Gastroenteritis
  - c. Headaches
  - d. Achy joints

3. Which of the following is untrue of Hepatitis?
  - a. Sometimes caused by sewage contamination
  - b. Affects primarily the stomach
  - c. Affects primarily the liver
  - d. Similar in symptoms to gastroenteritis

4. Indicator microbes are:
  - a. Microbes that are found in fish in polluted waters, indicating that the water is unsafe.
  - b. Microbes that are added to water samples which through their reaction with certain substances indicate water pollution.
  - c. Microbes which are found in normal safe water that are dead in polluted water.
  - d. Microbes which are typically found in human feces which indicate that water may be contaminated