

Help us understand how you are using the materials!

As you implement the modules, please take time to use the questionnaires about your students' content knowledge and attitudes before and after you use the activities. We have also provided a questionnaire about your expectations that will help us describe how the modules are being used.

Thank you, Dr. Hilarie B. Davis, Project AMBIENT Evaluator. For more information:
hilarie@techforlearning.org

| | |
|-------------------|---|
| Before the module | Call or email the project director, the evaluator and the facilitators Complete Teacher Expectations survey Have students complete the Student Survey Have students complete the Content Knowledge Survey. (You may ask students to omit questions that do not apply to the activities you are using) Send surveys to Evaluator |
| During the module | Make observation notes on the effect of the different activities on students Collect examples of student work for the activities you do Call an Instructional Specialist to develop a rubric to review student work |
| After the module | Student Survey about attitudes Student Content Knowledge Survey Teacher Reflection Survey Send surveys and observations notes to Evaluator |